SUBJECT Report on Edwin Wilson

JOHN CALHOUN: The capture of a renegade CIA agent in New York captures the attention of the U.S. Attorney General. William French Smith showed up to make the formal charges in a Washington press conference against Edwin Wilson: illegally shipping explosives to Libya, enticing American Green Berets to Libya for terrorist training camps.

NBC's Mike Moss says Wilson was then taken before a federal magistrate.

MIKE MOSS: Wilson appeared worried, sweating profusely, as his bail was set by the federal magistrate at $20 million.

One of the four Assistant U.S. Attorneys who appeared for the government said he had been in contact with Wilson during the past two years. They talked by phone several times and met in person once. The government's man didn't want to comment when he was asked why Wilson was not taken into custody at that meeting.
